

NAOMH EOIN BIZ

APRIL 2017

Welcome...

March was a very busy month for the U10 Camogs. We played blitzes at St.John's & travelled to the fantastic Meadowbank Sports centre in Magherafelt. It was great to see such a large attendance at both blitzes.

We had a brilliant experience & made lots of memories participating in the Belfast City St.Patrick's Day parade. The girls have to be commended for their behaviour - not only did they do Naomh Eoin proud but also themselves. We finished off back at the club with a fun day, pizzas and party.

The highlight of March has to be the annual Joe Boyle Memorial Tournament. The u10 camogs played in front of a packed Corrigan Park during the interval & then received a personalised medal from the Boyle family.

Camog's of the Month - March

Congratulations to Aoife McGivern & Hannah McAllister who received March's Camog of the Month. Well Done girls, keep up the good work!

Practice, Practice, Practice

SKILLS

This month the skills we will develop are:

- Striking on the run
- Hook
- Clash

Please encourage these skills throughout the Easter holidays.

Congratulations to Seana Gibson who received 'Pupil of the Month' in Holy Trinity PS. Well Done!

Good luck to Lucy Reynolds who is competing in the World Irish Dancing Championships on 14th April!

Have a lovely Easter & enjoy your Easter Eggs!
